

IN THE TRADITION....

THE 7TH NATIONAL FESTIVAL
OF BLACK STORYTELLING

BLACK
STORYTELLING:

A LEGACY

An International Festival featuring storytellers from the Americas
(North, South and Central), the Caribbean and Africa.

Hosted by Division of the Humanities

Medgar Evers College
of The City University of New York
1650 Bedford Avenue

Brooklyn
NY 11225 718 270 5048

Mary Umolu Ph.D - 1989 Festival Director

November 11-19, 1989

The Association of Black Storytellers Inc.
Linda Gass and Mary Carter Smith, co-founders

DAILY ADMISSION:

Adults $5 at door
$4 in advance
Children, Students & Seniors $3 at door
$2 in advance
Children 5 & under FREE

Special Weekly Rates Available for Individuals & Groups
Special Attractions EXTRA

Brochure Available on Request

Dr. Joseph D. Ransby, Chancellor, CUNY
Dr. Edwin S. Redkey, President, MDC
Dr. Elizabeth Russel-Randall, Humanities Division Chairperson
Dr. Leo Latta, Honorary Festival Chairperson

Sati Mafundikwa